Dear Si:

Enclosed are several technical amendments and suggested report language for the Civil Service Reform bill; these reflect our remaining concerns with the legislation and round out our exemptions. I believe we have mentioned most of these to you at some point. We have discussed them with Pat Swygert and with the House and Senate Committee staffs.

Sincerely,

TO: Mr. Steven Simmons, Assistant Director
Domestic Policy Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Steve:

As I mentioned to you the other day and after our meeting at the Civil Service Commission on the "Foreign Service matter," we have pulled together six (6) suggested technical amendments and report language on various provisions in the Civil Service bill.

Also, as we discussed, we have provided these to the House and Senate Committee staffs and have discussed them with Pat Swygert.

These amendments and report language would round out our present exemptions in the bills and, of course, are consistent therewith.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Assistant Legislative Counsel

MEMORANDUM FOR: FRANK B. MOORE
ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT
FOR CONGRESSIONAL LIAISON

FROM : FREDERICK P. HITZ
LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

SUBJECT : WEEKLY ACTIVITIES REPORT

1. CIVIL SERVICE REFORM (H.R. 11280, S. 2640): We are maintaining contact with the White House Task Force, the Civil Service Commission and Committee staffs in following the Conference Committee actions on this legislation and our various concerns with provisions in the bill.

2. FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE (H.R. 1): Floor debate is expected to continue next week on this bill. Representative Mazzoli had raised a problem on the matter of certain financial disclosure reports that would be filed by intelligence officers. We worked out amendatory language which appears to be acceptable to Representative Mazzoli and the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence to take care of our concerns; this was introduced on 20 September.

3. INTELLIGENCE CHARTER LEGISLATION (S. 2525, H.R. 11245): The NSC/SCC working group on charters will hold daily meetings next week to continue work on the third revision of Title II.
